FOR 17 YEARS
LARGEST CIRCULATION

HEAD LIBRARIAN'S REPORT SHOWS CIRCULATION GAIN

The Robbins Library circulated a total of 255,967 books for home use during the past year, an increase of 16,650 over the year 1948, according to the annual report submitted by Mrs. Lucinda Spofford, head librarian.

More Enter Race For Town Boards

More candidates entered the race for town office this week. Robert J. Brosnan of 88 Lake st., and William J. O'Brien of 319 Massachusetts ave., took out nomination papers at the office of Town Clerk James J. Golden for School Committee.

Dr. Joseph J. Carroll of 29 Wyman terrace took out papers for the Board of Health.

In her report to the trustees, Mrs. Spofford pointed out that the largest gain was at the main library, the second largest at the junior library, third at the Dallin branch and fourth at the East Arlington branch. A total of 174,997 books were circulated to adults and 80,970 to children. Figures submitted by Mrs. Spofford show a consistent increase in circulation over the past five years.

The Robbins Library and its branches had a total of 83,375 books in stock at the close of the year 1949, not an unusually large amount in view of the town's more than 45,000 people. During

NEW SCHOOL NEARING COMPLETION

$327,685 SEEN AS COST OF STREETS

Board to Propose Ambitious Project

The joint board of Selectmen and Public Works late Tuesday night voted to recommend the acceptance and construction of 22 streets at the annual town meeting next March. The estimated cost of the work is $327,685.52. About 60 percent of this amount would be returned to the town's general fund, eventually, through betterment assessments.

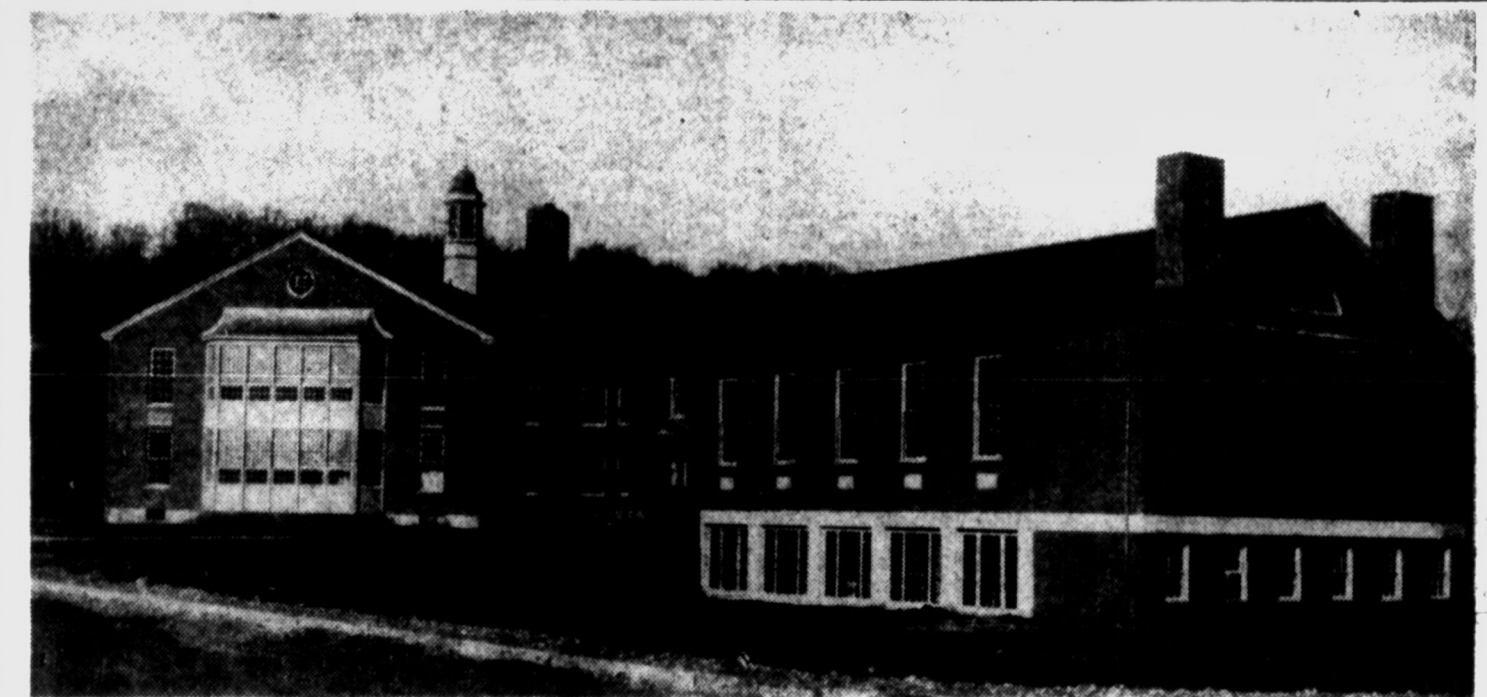

The proposed street-construction program is the largest in the history of the town in point of view of the number of streets recommended and their length. The action taken was in response to the demand of those living on unaccepted streets to hasten their completion.

Watertown Dropped From AHS Schedule

The School Committee at its meeting Tuesday evening approved the 1950 schedule for the Arlington High football team.

Watertown was dropped from next fall's schedule and in its place Arlington will play Lowell, State co-champions with the local eleven. Because Thanksgiving Day has been advanced one week, Malden will not be able to play Arlington. Consequently, an open date remains on the Arlington schedule.

First Vets' Apartments Ready Feb. 1

The first 16 families to occupy Arlington's new Veterans' Housing project are expected to move in about the first of next month, the Arlington Housing Authority announced this week.

The following brief statement was issued Monday at the Housing Authority's office in the Robbins House:

"Sixteen three-bedroom apartments in the Arlington Housing Authority are due to be completed and available for occupancy on or about Feb. 1. Prospective tenants selected to occupy these apartments have been notified by mail.

"Tenants for other buildings to be completed in the future will be notified as the buildings become available for occupancy."

Letters notifying the 16 families that they could make plans to occupy the apartments were mailed Monday. All the families are those of veterans of World War II, according to Robert Houser, executive director of the Authority. They were selected from several hundred applications. Other families will be admitted to the project as soon as additional apartments are completed.

W. Dale Barker is chairman of the Authority.

—Rev. John Nicol Mark was guest speaker at the annual luncheon of the Quincy Visiting Nursing Association held yesterday.

—Kiwanis district officers will be installed at the Hotel Touraine, Boston, tomorrow. Luncheon will be served at 12:30.

275 Students May 'Move In' April 1

Arlington's newest public school, on what was formerly a part of the Crosby Farm off Mystic st., is fast nearing completion. Indications are that the building will be entirely completed and furnished by March, the NEWS learned this week from Harold M. Estabrook, chairman of the special building committee which procured plans and supervised the construction of the building.

The general contractor—Boss Construction Co., Inc.—expects to wind up its work and be out in 30 days, Mr. Estabrook said. However

REGISTRATION

Persons eligible to vote and who have not yet been registered, may do so at the town clerk's office anytime during the day, from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., except Saturdays when town hall offices are closed. Town Clerk James J. Golden pointed out this week.

Moreover, the Registrars of Voters, this week-end, will set the dates for special evening registration sessions to be held in anticipation of the annual town election.

In response to postal cards sent to unregistered voters last week, more than 60 called at the town clerk's office in three days' time and registered, according to Rep. Henry E. Keenan.

New Streets

In all, no less than 51 new streets were applied for and 27 hearings have been conducted by the joint board. Eleven hearings were held by the board Tuesday night alone in connection with the proposed street projects. These brought the series of hearings on new streets to a close.

The joint board voted to recommend the construction of two sections of George st., and the construction of unfinished sections of Cedar ave., High Haith road, Huntington road, Johnson road, Laurel st., Longfellow road, Overlook road, Radcliffe road, Renfrew st., Bradley road, Crosby st., Eustis st., Hilton st., Upland Road West, Gardner st., Valentine road, Rhinecliff st., Richfield road and Waverly st.

Whether the cost of the new streets will be raised by taxation this year or a bond issue will be proposed has not been determined.

Republican Women
to Meet Wednesday

The Arlington Women's Republican Club will present an unusual program next Wednesday afternoon at Legion Hall. Mrs. Hollis M. Gott will preside.

Dessert and coffee will be served at 1:30. Mrs. Mary Manningham will speak on "Life Can Be Fun," at 2 o'clock. This speaker lectures in a humorous vein, but with a definite philosophical thread. A resident of West Medford, she came here from the Middle West about 10 years ago and has lectured professionally for six years throughout New England.

Tickets may be obtained from the executive board members.

Arlington Emblem Club
Honors Past President

The Arlington Emblem Club honored Mrs. Florence Barry, past president who has been appointed a district deputy, at a testimonial last Tuesday evening.

Five new members comprising the Florence Barry Class were initiated by Mrs. Barry. A gift was presented the new district deputy during a social hour which followed. Past president Helen Allison was in charge.

Next Tuesday evening, the club will sponsor a public entertainment.

On Saturday, Jan. 28, a birthday party and past presidents' night will be held at Odd Fellows Hall. A banquet, served at 6:30, will be followed by entertainment and dancing.

Girls' Bowling League

Zonta Club Hears
Talk on Amelia
Earhart's Life

The Arlington Zonta Club observed Amelia Earhart Day (set as Jan. 11 by Zonta International) last Thursday evening at the Winchester Country Club.

Guest speaker was Mrs. Albert Morrissey of West Medford, a sister of the noted flyer who disappeared on her non-stop flight from Honolulu to the mainland. Mrs. Morrissey spoke of "Amelia's life and accomplishments," beginning with her childhood days, on through college, her aeronautical career and last flight.

Miss Bernice Dodge conducted the business meeting.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 26 with dinner at 6:30. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Vivian Peterson who will talk on "American Women in the Eyes of an Argentinian."

Here Is Another Time The Anti-Trust Lawyers Were Wrong!

Ever since the anti-trust lawyers filed their suit to put A&P out of business, they have been making, in the newspapers and over the radio, various "allegations" about how they think this company does business.

Please remember that "allegations" are charges that have not been proved.

In this case they will be disproved.

There have been times in the past when the anti-trust lawyers made very damaging "allegations" about this company that the courts eventually decided were utterly without foundation.

In our last advertisement we told you about the time the anti-trust lawyers charged that A&P, two other food chains and two labor unions conspired to fix the price of bread in Washington, D. C.

And yet, when this case came to trial, it was revealed that the defendants were actually selling bread cheaper than most other stores in Washington, and there was absolutely no evidence that they had ever engaged in any such "alleged" conspiracy.

That was the time Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough instructed the jury to bring in a verdict of "not guilty."

It was the time he said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"If you were to show this record to any experienced trial lawyer in the world, he would tell you that there was not any evidence at all."

"Honestly, I have never in my over forty years' experience seen tried a case that was as absolutely devoid of evidence as this. That is the honest truth. I have never seen one like it."

But this was not the only time that the anti-trust lawyers made such serious "allegations" against A&P which were false. Again, and still again, they brought cases against A&P and suffered defeat.

As we have said, we think you are entitled to know about these other cases. And now, we are going to tell you about the second time the anti-trust lawyers were wrong.

The North Carolina Potato Case

In December, 1941, the anti-trust lawyers brought a criminal suit in Wilson, North Carolina.

They charged that A&P's fresh fruit and vegetable buying subsidiary, and other good American citizens, had conspired to fix and depress prices paid farmers for potatoes in North Carolina, Virginia and Maryland.

Can anyone imagine any charge calculated to be more damaging to a retail grocery business that must rely on farmers, day after day, for the food we distribute to our customers?

In this case the anti-trust lawyers gave a story to the newspapers, telling millions of farmers that we were the kind of people who would force their prices down, deprive them of a decent income, and lower their families' living standard.

These charges were false.

They made these charges despite the fact that it has always been A&P's policy to pay our farm suppliers fair market prices for all produce; to aid agriculture through better distribution of its products; to narrow the spread between farm and retail prices; and to help farmers build better markets for their products.

That is why many thousands of farmers all over the country are now coming to our support.

When the case finally came to trial, the anti-trust lawyers put on as their first witness a potato expert of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

This expert, who was the anti-trust lawyers' own witness, testified that contrary to the anti-trust lawyers' "allegations," the defendants made every effort to help the Department of Agriculture in its efforts to aid the potato farmer in better marketing of his products and in getting a better price for his products.

When the anti-trust lawyers had put in their evidence and had argued their case Federal Judge C. C. Wyche directed the jury to bring in a verdict of "not guilty."

Judge Wyche said to the anti-trust lawyers:

"I have studied this case from the very outset. In my opinion there is no testimony produced from which it can reasonably be inferred that the defendants entered into a combination to depress or lower the price of potatoes."

"I might say that I never tried a case in my life where a greater effort, more work, more investigation had been done, combing almost with a fine-tooth comb to gather evidence, as was done in this case."

"But, as was said a long time ago, you can't make brick without straw, and you can't make a case without facts."

So, here was a case in which the anti-trust lawyers made seriously damaging charges against A&P in which the Judge decided that there were no facts to support those charges.

That is why we say the anti-trust lawyers can be wrong and have been wrong.

That is why we say that they are wrong again, just as they were wrong in the Washington bread case and the North Carolina potato case.

We are going to show the American people that the suit to destroy A&P is really a suit against efficiency and against real competition.

The real question involved in this suit is whether businessmen are going to be encouraged to do a better and more efficient job; or whether we are going to let the anti-trust lawyers in Washington blow the whistle on anybody who gets big by giving the people more for their money.

No one can make us believe that it is a crime to try to sell the best quality food at the lowest possible price.

New School

ever, he emphasized that no deadline has been set since it has not been determined—as far as he knows—how soon the school will be occupied. In view of this fact, no pressure will be exerted to rush the completion of the school. The building committee's main concern is to give Arlington the best school possible and any delay of a week or two will be of secondary importance, Chairman Estabrook explained.

Exterior Work Completed
Exterior construction work and painting has been completed. The school auditorium, which will seat 400, is finished but remains to be painted. A ground coat of paint has been applied throughout the interior of the eight classrooms, kindergarten and library. Some of the interior finish, including blackboards, is now being installed.

Some of the furniture for the new school has already arrived in Arlington and it is expected that it will be moved into the new school about March 1.

The building, of colonial architecture and of brick construction, comprises two sections, one housing eight classrooms, kindergarten, library, office, etc., and the other incorporating a modern auditorium, with basement playroom. A modified cafeteria is also included, in addition to ample storage rooms.

"The very best of materials have gone into this school and we're proud of it," Mr. Estabrook said. "It should serve the town for a hundred years." He said the building committee plans an open house on a Saturday and Sunday when the school is completed so that the taxpayers may inspect the new building. Furthermore, he said a booklet was being prepared describing the school, its unit cost, materials that have gone into it, etc., "so that the people of Arlington may see exactly what they are getting for their money."

The school will serve children in Morningside and adjacent sections, most of whom now attend the antiquated Russell school on Medford st. How soon they will occupy the new school will be determined by the school committee.

"Assuming that the new school is completed March 15, we hope to have the first group of pupils occupy the building about April 1," John P. Morine, chairman of the school committee, told the NEWS yesterday.

He said indications are that 175 children will be assigned to the new Bishop School, at the start. These pupils will be transferred from the Russell and Cutter Schools. Present plans call for keeping three grades open at the Russell School for the remainder of this year, at least. The future status of the old building has not been decided upon although it has been discussed at great lengths, Chairman Morine said.

Girl Scouts to Burn Mortgage

The burning of the mortgage on Camp Menotomy, symbolizing payment in full, will be the climax of the annual meeting of the Arlington Girl Scouts at a dinner next Tuesday in the vestry of the Unitarian Church.

Special invitations to be present and to join in the celebration have been sent to those who have worked for and contributed to the Camp. Albert W. Wunderly, long-time supporter of the camp, will act as toastmaster. The history of the camp will be given by Mrs. Harold Neames, who was on the committee which chose the camp site in New Hampshire. She has remained active in the conduct of its affairs ever since. Barbara Gaudet, representing the Brownies, Betty Center, representing the Scouts, and Mrs. Lee Cursey Klien, representing "old campers," will each speak briefly of their camp memories.

Dr. Lendon Snedeker, assistant administrator of the Children's Hospital, will conclude the program, speaking on "The Value of Camping." Joining in the special ceremony when the mortgage is burned will be Rita Egan, Penny Keatley, Marcia Moltman, Betty Center, Barbara Muller, Mona Shute, Sarah Weston, Marianne Wood, Virginia Whitehouse and Patricia Cox. Reservations for the dinner may be made by calling the Arlington Girl Scout office.

Autos operated by William Frasier of 16 Edith st., and Ruby Farrell of Winchester collided at Mystic and Chestnut sts., Friday afternoon. No injuries were reported.

William F. Hanney and family, formerly of Billerica, have established residence at their new home, 4 Marrigan st.

Engaged

MISS CATHERINE A. CONNOLLY

Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Connolly of 36 Jason st. announce the engagement of their daughter, Catherine A. Connolly, to John Halliwell, II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric G. Halliwell of New Bedford.

Miss Connolly is a graduate of Arlington High School and Katharine Gibbs School. Mr. Halliwell is a graduate of Tufts College where he is associated with the Department of Admissions. He served with the Army Air Force.

2 More Classes in Sewing Added

The School Committee at a meeting Tuesday night voted to add two extra sewing classes for adults as part of the new adult education courses which have just started.

The demand for sewing instruction has been the largest of any of the classes offered, with over 100 more "students" than originally anticipated, according to School Committee chairman John P. Morine.

Classes in rug hooking, leather craft and typing have also been "over-subscribed," he said. A waiting list has been established and because of the heavy demand for instruction any adult who misses class without serious reason will be dropped and his or her place will be taken by a person on the waiting list, Mr. Morine said.

Completing a cruise in the Mediterranean and Northern European waters is James F. Cranford, MM1c, USN, husband of Mrs. James F. Cranford of 35 Park Avenue ext., whose ship, the heavy cruiser USS Des Moines, is scheduled to arrive in Newport, R. I., Jan. 27.

Miss Nora Brown will spend the next several weeks at Clearwater, Fla.

LOCAL GUARD HOLDUP VICTIM

Charles Grell of 205 Spring ave., a messenger-guard, was one of five Brink's Inc. employees who were held up by seven men at the company's garage in Boston early Tuesday night in a holdup which netted $1,500,000.

Details of the robbery and the manhunt now under way to apprehend the nine men who participated in the raid on the supposedly impregnable vault filled columns in Boston newspapers this week.

Chief of Police Archie F. Bullock, who has alerted his men in the hope of picking up any clues that might help solve the crime, expressed the opinion that "some-one familiar with Brink's layout and its operations" had something to do with the robbery.

—Mrs. Stanley Whitman of 827 Massachusetts ave., and Mrs. William Robinson of 29 Bartlett ave., have returned home from New York after spending a week with the former's sister, Mrs. Lewis Eisenhower.

High School Play Set for Tomorrow

"You Can't Take It With You", Pulitzer prize play which was a Broadway hit and won the Academy Award, will be presented by the Arlington High School Dramatic Club Saturday evening at the Robbins Town Hall.

Power shortage in New England?
NONSENSE!

This very week two great new electric stations with a total capacity of 85,000 kilowatts have come into service at Portsmouth, N. H. and West Springfield, Mass.

And by next autumn, the number of new generating units added to New England's electric resources since last summer will have grown to eight—with a total of 352,250 kilowatts. Every bit of this electric power is available throughout New England over a modern network of interconnecting transmission lines.

There is no shortage of electric power here. New England's electric power needs are being taken care of by the energy and vision of self-supporting electric companies—not only for today and tomorrow but far into the future as still more new plants take their place in the service of New England homes, commerce and industry.

WILL YOU SERVE?

Only one week remains for candidates to file their nomination papers for election as town meeting member.

Yet, according to the Citizens' Committee, there were only sixty-two candidates for the 142 vacancies up to early this week. To say that this is an unfortunate condition is an understatement. The lethargy of citizens towards the coming election indicates a breakdown in our representative form of town government.

Unless civic-minded citizens offer their services, it is possible that someone will elect himself by merely writing in his own name on the ballot, or that some pressure group will "pack" the town hall floor by backing a slate of candidates pledged to serve one particular group. If the best interests of Arlington are to be served, candidates who want a fair deal for the taxpayers, town departments and town employees, alike, should come forward. It's a large order, we'll admit.

Norwood has 851 candidates for 120 vacancies. What is the matter with Arlington?

The procedure to get your name on the ballot is simple. Nomination papers can be obtained at the town clerk's office. Then, only ten signatures of registered voters in your precinct are required. Finally, the nomination paper must be filed by January 30. Will you serve?

New Citizen

Born at the Richardson House on Jan. 7, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Dale of 135 Scituate st. The new arrival, named Susan Catherine, is the couple's seventh daughter and eighth child. William P. Dale, town official, is the grandfather.

BOOK REVIEWERS MEET

Mrs. Arthur Garland of Puritan Road was hostess to the Brackett Book Reviewers last Wednesday evening.

A comprehensive review of "Father Flanagan of Boys Town" was given by Mrs. Albert Porteus. The next meeting will be Jan. 25, at the home of Mrs. Edwin Healy when Mrs. Howard Buzzell will give the highlights of the story "Rogues March".

The NEWS OBSERVES

Boston faces a $16 increase in its tax rate, bringing it to $73. Mayor John B. Hynes disclosed Tuesday noon. The announcement was little short of sensational and might have been a topic of discussion for several days, at least. BUT, within a few hours later, came the startling Brink's Express holdup and everybody seemed to have forgotten about the Boston tax rate. However, while the story of the holdup—one of the biggest in the history of the country—makes interesting reading, it will be forgotten much sooner than the tax burden which the Boston taxpayers are destined to carry.

Speaking of taxes, Arlington needn't be too smug either. From what we know of the Arlington town department budget requests, plus the estimated $327,685 cost for 22 new streets, and other warrant articles, the Finance Committee and town meeting members will deserve a medal if they can keep our own tax rate within reason. The situation appears far more serious than many realize.

That $1,000,000 telephone building which was proposed for Arlington some years back would be a handsome source of tax revenue right now. But, the Telephone Company was practically told by some persons at the public hearing, held at that time, to take its telephone building outside of Arlington. These persons might take a glance at the Malden dial telephone building and note if it's an eyesore. Wonder how much that building brings in tax revenue to the city of Malden?

Postal regulations forbid the promotion of penny sales in news columns and advertising in newspapers sent through the mail. Therefore, the NEWS cannot accept publicity for such entertainments.

Veterans eligible for the auto-for-amputees benefit from the Veterans Administration have less than six months for the filing and adjudication of their claims, according to William McKee, manager of the Cambridge office of the VA. McKee said the law requires a veteran to apply so that VA can act on his case before July 1.

The high wind Saturday afternoon loosened the coping on the roof of a building at Park and Massachusetts ave., Arlington Heights. When it appeared that the coping might be blown down, the Public Works Department roped off the sidewalk adjacent to the building and police were assigned to the danger spot until emergency repairs were made. The freak winds which accompanied the spring-like weather in the late forenoon, broke several large tree branches and whipped television aerials in Arlington but no heavy damage was reported.

Chief Asks More Signs For 'Pike'

In a letter to Edgar Copell, traffic engineer of the State Department of Public Works, Chief of Police Archie F. Bullock recommends the erection of seven additional speed limit signs on the Concord turnpike to safeguard the public and reduce accidents.

A check made by the Arlington police officials shows there are seven such signs on the turnpike from the Lexington line to the traffic circle in Cambridge, these signs calling for speed limits of 30 to 40 miles per hour.

Chief Bullock suggests that some of the additional signs he proposes be posted in the center strip, "which would be on the operator's side and a great deal more visible."

He suggests further that a large reflectorized sign be erected at each end of the pike, entering Arlington, with the words, "Thickly Settled; Speed Law Strictly Enforced."

Chief Bullock also suggests that the opening in the center strip opposite Wilson ave. be closed "as it is an extremely dangerous crossing and if allowed to remain will result in serious accidents."

Touchdown Club Sees Movies of Bowl Game

A play-by-play movie of the Arlington-Warren Easton football game played at New Orleans was shown at a dinner meeting of the Arlington Touchdown Club last Thursday evening at the Hotel Commander. Head Coach Henry Toczyloski explained the various plays which highlighted the game. Another movie of New Orleans scenes, taken by Dr. Donald Horley, one of the Arlington fans who made the trip, was also enjoyed. Principal Raymond Morrill, James J. Golden, Bowl committee chairman; Atty. Francis Keefe, Daniel McFadden, assistant coach Jim Cavalleri and Sam Femia, all of whom made the trip, also related their experiences in New Orleans. They were unanimous in their praise of the conduct of the Arlington football squad, both on and off the field.

Brackett P.T.A.

The January meeting of the Brackett School Parent-Teacher Association under the direction of Ruth Mark, parent education chairman, was held in the school auditorium on Tuesday.

Mr. Abdou, interior decorator for Huntley House of Boston, spoke on color harmony in the home. He demonstrated many ways of changing interior of rooms with wallpaper, draperies and slip covers.

Tea was served by Mrs. Herbert Cronin, assisted by Mrs. Watson Greenfield.

VISITING NURSES REPORT 9,525 CALLS MADE DURING YEAR 1949

The Arlington Visiting Association nurses made a total of 9,525 calls during the year 1949, an increase of 1172 calls over the previous year. Miss Caroline A. Fandel, supervisor, pointed out in her report which was read by Miss Ethel M. Fisher at the annual meeting of the AVNA held in Robbins Library hall.

Mrs. Francis Chamberlain presided and reports were presented by Miss Edith Winn, recording secretary; Mrs. Frederick W. Hill, treasurer; and Ernest Hesselbine, auditor, whose report was read by Miss Isabel Hallett.

Miss Dorothy Leavitt, new supervisor of nurses who replaces Miss Fandel who has resigned after 30 years as supervisor, was introduced.

Mrs. Chamberlain expressed the deep regret of the board in accepting the resignation of Miss Fandel, and stated that plans were under way for a reception in her honor at a later date. She thanked all the nurses for the faithful services they have performed and are continuing to perform in spite of being under-compensated. She also expressed her appreciation of the services of Mrs. Rafelli who has replaced Mrs. Estes as office secretary.

Excellent attendance was also reported at both Well Baby clinics conducted by the Association.

Explains Appointment

Mrs. Chamberlain stated that it had been the wish of the board to appoint a supervisor from its own excellent staff of nurses. This was made impossible, however, by the requirements of the State that any supervisor of a Grade "A" organization such as Arlington's, must be a graduate of a School of Public Health Nursing.

Miss Winn, in her report, brought out the several crises faced by the association during the past year, one of them being the failure of the Community Chest to provide necessary funds, leaving the association $1,400 short of the amount anticipated to carry on the work of the nurses.

Mrs. M. Norcross Stratton presented the report of the nominating committee and the following officers for 1950 were elected:

Officers Elected

Mrs. Francis Chamberlain, president; Mrs. Hallam T. Ring and Mrs. Lawrence R. Eaton, vice-presidents; Miss Edith Winn, recording secretary; Mrs. Edwin A. Barnard, corresponding secretary;

Feast of Lights Pageant Planned

The annual Feast of Lights Pageant will be presented in St. John's Episcopal Church next Sunday evening at 7:30 at a service of Evening Prayer.

The pageant will be presented by the Young People's Fellowship, and is especially appropriate for this Epiphany season. The spreading of the Light of the Gospel of Christ throughout the world is the theme of the pageant.

The service will be conducted by Rev. Halsey Andrews, rector, and Everett Ellis, student assistant. Those taking part in the pageant are: Gail Townsend, Philip Peterson, Ellen Robinson, Jane Marie McKelvie, Jeanne Flux, Stanton Hamlet, Kenneth King, Edwin Kerr, Clark Hamlet, Donald Lundquist, Robert Barnes, Joanne King, Charles Azarian, Barbara Walker, Lorraine Robinson, Lenore Reid, John Rousakis, Helene Burke, Lee Caswell, Thelma Whitman, Gail Matheson and Barbara Clifford. Ushers are Robert Tadgell, Theodore Okerlund, Ralph Rice, Richard Keene; the acolytes are Allan Barstow, Robert Yeo, John Wheatley, John Gunnerson. Mrs. R. Jefferson, Mrs. E. Ellis, Anne Morrill and Edith McKelvie are in charge of costumes. The music will be furnished by Louis T. Phelps and the parish choir. Robert Carlson is director.

O'Brien Candidate For School Board

This week, William J. O'Brien, Jr., of 319 Massachusetts ave., announced his candidacy for School Committee. Mr. O'Brien, a life-long resident of Arlington, will base his campaign on the theme that a committee that passes on all public school policies and budgets should have representation from diversified points of view.

"It is a mistake," says Mr. O'Brien, "for a town to elect all of its members from teachers in other school systems, parent-teacher association executives, and department of education officials. These people all reflect the educators' idea on school operation."

"Of course, it is important to have trained educators and those who understand the teacher's problems on a school committee. But, like any organization, the committee is weakened by a quantity of members with the same approach to each problem."

Mr. O'Brien served in the Asiatic-Pacific Theatre on the USS Celano and in Caribbean waters on the USS Steinacker during World War II.

He attended the Hardy and Parmenter schools. He also graduated from the Junior High East and Arlington High School. After his discharge from the Navy, O'Brien studied at Manter Hall School and Tufts College.

Calvary WSCS Meets

About 75 members of the Calvary Woman's Society of Christian Service met last Wednesday evening with members of the Heights Methodist Church as guests.

Mrs. Walter Carle conducted the devotional program which was followed by two trumpet solos by Richard Vaniderstine, accompanied by Mrs. George Burke. Miss Edith Starkey presided during the business meeting.

Mrs. Francis Wilson, secretary of missionary education of the New England Conference, guest speaker, pointed to the grave need of workers in the missionary fields and of the support and cooperation of those in the home churches. "Young people today, especially, should be urged to enter the missionary work," she said.

The Paquinox Club served refreshments. —Firemen responded to an alarm for a fire in an electric motor in the basement of the restaurant at 473 Massachusetts ave., Arlington Center, early Saturday evening.

Semi-Annual

Stocktaking Sale

Now In Progress!

Savings of 1/4, 1/3, 1/2,
and MORE!

Twice a year we completely overhaul our stocks to assure you, our customers, of crisp, new, high quality Parke Snow merchandise. We clear from our stocks all broken lots of merchandise . . . all discontinued numbers. All this merchandise is good in itself, and affords excellent savings.

Every Department in the Store participates in this Semi-Annual Sale! In many cases intermediate mark-downs have been taken, bringing you savings of MORE than one-half. Because of the nature of this Sale, there can be . . . no layaways . . . no C.O.D.'s . . . no 'phone orders . . . no pre-selections!

Now...Just Lift a Lever and Go!

It's a New driving thrill in the 1950 Nash Ambassador!

"Want to know the last word in effortless driving?"

In the 1950 Nash Ambassador Hydra-matic Drive is combined with Selecto-Lift Starting.

Simply lift a lever and go! No clutch pedal—not even a starter button! You can drive all day without shifting gears.

And here's the thrill of America's top high compression engine that uses regular gasoline—for performance and gasoline mileage new to fine cars.

Note the quietness. Airflyte design cuts through the wind with 20.7% less air drag than the average car.

Here, too, is the comfort and luxury only the Nash Ambassador can offer . . . with Airliner Reclining Seat . . . Weather Eye Conditioned Air System . . . Twin-Bed spaciousness . . . the rigidity and lasting silence of Airflyte Construction.

Yes, it's the most modern of fine cars, yet the price of a Nash Ambassador, even a Custom model regally tailored to your order—is as much as a thousand dollars less than cars of comparable size and quality cost! See your Nash dealer, and make this frank comparison yourself!

Library Report

the past year, 86 books were borrowed by the library from neighboring libraries through an inter-library loan plan. On the other hand, the Arlington library lent 84 books to 10 other libraries through the same plan.

Related Work Listed
The work of the librarians has not been confined to the circulating of books. Maps and pamphlets have been circulated. No less than 5069 Tello-test questions were answered over the telephone. Displays and exhibits have been planned and set up. Bibliographies have been prepared and assistance has been given schools, clubs and churches in preparing special exhibits.

A file of Arlington organizations, with their officers and meeting dates, has been kept up to date as far as possible.

Considerable time has been spent answering questions reflecting, particularly, current political and economic trends.

Once a week, Mrs. Ruth Fuller, one of the librarians, has visited patients at the Symmes Hospital and delivered 1,280 books, a library service which is seldom realized. School libraries have been maintained in four schools, each having 600 books on deposit. Story Hours and the Everyland Club have continued for the benefit of Arlington boys and girls. This program has been an important phase of the Children's Library work.

A total of 2005 new borrowers were registered in 1949, bringing the total registration to 19,622.

Mrs. Spofford acknowledged the gift of books from the Arlington Garden Club, Arlington Heights Study Club and several individuals.

Projects which should be undertaken in the near future, according to the head librarian, include additional shelves, the microfilming of newspapers, a fine arts room, a modern branch building in East Arlington and a record collection when necessary funds and space become available.

The newest innovation introduced this year has been the series of recorded concerts given at the Robbins Library Hall. These concerts, open to all music lovers, are followed by question periods.

In his report for the library trustees, Wilson D. Clark, Jr., chairman reviewed the growth of Arlington's library facilities, beginning with the consolidation of several small lots of books in five homes into the present main library, in 1893.

The trustees this year will ask for an appropriation of $79,815 for running expenses and $4,000 for capital outlay, for changes in the interior of the main library and extraordinary replacements there and at the Dallin branch.

Iron Lung Displayed to Aid Polio Drive

An iron lung, in operation, is on display in the window of the Edison Shop, Arlington Center, as one of four special displays set up in the town to publicize the March of Dimes drive in aid of polio victims.

Mrs. Russell T. Hamlet supervised the setting up of the displays with the cooperation of the stores, the Haynes Memorial Hospital and the manufacturer of the iron lung. In the Touraine window is a life-size model of the March of Dimes poster subject. A replica of an iron lung is being displayed at Moreland Electric in East Arlington, while adult "walkers" are displayed at Wanamakers in the Heights.

Miss Jean Stauss, Miss Joan Stickney, Mrs. Leo Macdonald and Mrs. James Stauss assisted Mrs. Hamlet.

The 1950 March of Dimes got under way Monday with $15,000 as the goal set for Arlington in what is considered the most important fund-raising effort ever conducted for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Last year's record infantile paralysis epidemic virtually drained the nation of its March of Dimes epidemic aid resources, William Sinclair, Arlington campaign director for the 1950 appeal, asserted this week.

Stressing the vital importance of a record March of Dimes, this year, Mr. Sinclair said that expenses for patient care in 1949 soared to $31,000,000 and by last October had wiped out treasures of local chapters, including Arlington, in 43 States and Alaska.

Miss Duane Engaged

Mrs. James J. Duane of 56 Hillton at, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Marym Duane, to Charles Manley Flint, son of Mrs. Charles J. Flint of Brockton. Mr. Flint served two years in the U. S. Marine Corps and is a graduate of Bryant & Stratton.

NOVEL PROGRAM PLANNED
Plans are under way for the Musical Carousell, featuring the Arlington Academy of Music concert band and chorus, at the Robbins Town Hall on Thursday, Feb. 2. Tickets will be sold for tables on the floor, as well as balcony seats.

Brigantine's Skipper to Show Color Film of So. Pacific Cruise

From the sun-warmed decks of the brigantine "Yankee," the colorful romantic islands of the South Pacific, and fascinating, little-known ports around the world comes a man with a story of such adventure as most people only dream of.

He is Commander Irving Johnson, adventurer and author, who recently returned from his fourth "round-the-world" cruise of adventure, and brings his newest, all color film, "Yankee's Wander World" to the Robbins Town Hall next Wednesday evening at 8, under the auspices of the First Universalist Church. Tickets are available at the Treasure Chest and Belden & Snow's.

This epic adventure film—3000 feet of it—narrated by Commander Johnson, in person, will take the audience with the "Yankees" amateur crew on a year and a half of exciting meanderings around the world, looking for adventure in the strangest and most alluring sections of our globe.

With Commander Johnson as skipper, the "Yankee" manned by an amateur crew of 22 young adventurers, sailed from the old fishing port of Gloucester, equipped with 40 cameras, 30 guns, fishing tackle, harpoons, diving gear and underwater photographic equipment.

Regent's Vaudeville Attracts Full House

Vaudeville returned to the Regent Theatre Wednesday night with stars of the stage, radio and television appearing in four high class acts. A capacity audience was on hand.

Music was provided by Karle Rohde's orchestra which will appear each Wednesday evening with top professional talent. The shows are professional, with no audience participation. In addition, the usual two feature films are shown each Wednesday. The top feature film starts at 8 p.m.

Children should be seen and not hurt. Drive carefully.

Will Give Talk on Berlin Airlift

The Arlington Military Manpower Committee announces plans for a public meeting to be held at Robbins Library Hall on Tuesday, Feb. 8 at which Capt. Robert J. Green, U.S. Air Force, will speak on the Berlin Airlift.

Captain Green recently returned to the United States after two years duty in Germany as a pilot on the Airlift. He will tell of his experiences on this undertaking. He has been assigned to duty as Public Information Officer at the Boston main station of the New England Recruiting District for the Army and Air Force, and is actively in the work of the Arlington MMC. He is a resident of Arlington, living with his family at the Moore Apartments.

Home Day Planned By Woman's Club

The Arlington Woman's Club will observe American Home Day next Thursday in Robbins Town Hall.

The all-day meeting, with Mrs. Americo Chaves presiding, will open at 10:30 a. m. with a group of songs by the Arlington Woman's Club Chorus under the direction of Mrs. Arthur J. Mansfield.

Miss Victoria Rosatto, a professor at Lowell Textile Institute, will stage a fashion show ranging from little girl's dresses, through the teen age, to adult styles. Luncheon will be served at the Pleasant st. Congregational Church at 12:30 o'clock.

The afternoon session will begin at 2 p. m. Dr. John F. Conlin will talk on "Socialized Medicine." Music will be furnished by the Arlington High School Orchestra under the baton of L. Hassler Einzig. "Cups and Saucers" will be displayed in the art corners.

Mrs. Lawley Entertains Kensington Study Club

Mrs. Brace I. Lawley was hostess to the Kensington Park Study Club on Tuesday at her home on Endicott road.

Following a social and dessert hour, piano solos by Miss Katherine Yerrinton were enjoyed. Continuing the study of England, Mrs. William Brooks read a paper on old London and Mrs. L. E. Smith on modern London.

Mrs. Lawley conducted the business meeting. The next meeting will be held Jan. 24 at 1:45 at the home of Mrs. Morton Bradley.

Town Basketball League Launched

The Town Basketball League under the sponsorship of the Park Department officially opened Monday evening with three fast games being played in the High School gym.

Tom Cotter, ex A.H.S. star, revealed his old shooting form, scoring 28 points to lead his Mt. Vernon team to victory over the Americans.

Games in this league are played every Monday and Thursday evening at the old gym in the High School. There are 10 teams in the league composed of former high school athletes.

Games and scores:
Mt. Vernon 60, Americans 38
Barons 30, Central 18
I.P.I. 34, St. Jerome 15

DAR Chapter Honors Judith Chamberlain

Presentation of Menotomy Chapter D.A.R.'s Good Citizenship pin to Miss Judith Chamberlain, Arlington High School senior, highlighted the meeting of the D.A.R. in Robbins Library Hall Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Terry Shuman, State recording secretary of the D.A.R., made the presentation. Mrs. John Sampson, Regent, presided.

The selection of a girl student for this award is based on dependability, service, leadership and patriotism. Miss Chamberlain is the sixth to receive the local chapter's award, the first having been made in 1945 when Mrs. Shuman was regent.

First winner, Frances Kord, was graduated from Wellesley with high honors and is now studying for her Master's at Yale. Phyllis Wyman is a senior at Denison University. Naomi Palmer, now living in Mansfield, is attending Wellesley where she is on the dean's list. Jean DeFazio is employed by the Arlington Advocate and Doloris Heffernan is a student at Radcliffe.

Miss Chamberlain will be a guest at the State Conference at the Copple Plaza March 30-31 with more than 200 other Massachusetts girls who have received a similar award.

Program For "Youth Day" Is Outlined At Patriots' Day Committee Meeting

Further plans for Arlington's observance of the 175th anniversary of the ride of Paul Revere on next April 19th—were discussed at a meeting of the Patriots' Day committee in the Old Town Hall Monday evening. William Bachlor, general chairman, presided. The tentative program will be reviewed by the Board of Selectmen next Monday evening.

A three-day observance has been planned and an outline was given for Youth Day which will be held on Monday of Patriots' Day week. James Sumner, chairman of the Youth Day committee, and Miss Katherine E. McCarthy, secretary, reported on the progress made at a well-attended meeting held Friday at which adult leaders of youth activities in Arlington were present. Special events for children of various age groups have been planned, with daytime program for the younger children and a dance at the Robbins Town Hall for senior high school students and a square dance for junior high pupils in another hall in the evening.

Mrs. Stanley R. Kingman, representing Menotomy Chapter, D.A.R., outlined plans for an essay contest for junior high school students which has been approved by Superintendent of Schools Clifford R. Hall. The topic will be on "The Significance of Patriots' Day."

Mrs. Mary Boyd, president of the Arlington P.T.A. Council, and Charles Bridges, president of the Chamber of Commerce, pledged their cooperation.

Garden Club Meets

M. A. Fultz of Indiana, county agent for the Middlesex Extension Bureau, was guest speaker at the January meeting of the Garden Club. He gave a practical talk on "Food and Sprays for Growing Plants."

Members of the flower-arrangement group who wish to volunteer their services helping make arrangements on Arlington Garden Club day at the Bedford Veterans Hospital, Friday, Jan. 27, may contact Mrs. Charles W. Wright.

MAY CUT SQUARE DANCES

Next Thursday evening a square dance with all the trimmings will be conducted by the Park Department at the Junior East Gym. All enthusiasts of this type of dancing, plus beginners, are urged to be present. Attendance has fallen off since the holidays and if crowds are not on the increase it may be necessary to cancel weekly dances and run them only twice per month.

The first meeting of the new year for the Parmenter P.T.A. Association was held Monday evening. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Von Weston. The guest speaker, E. W. Williams, representing the United Mutual Fire Insurance Company, spoke on "Fire in Miniature."

His interesting talk on the prevention of fires at home was highlighted with actual demonstrations.

—Charles T. King of 16 Magnolia st., recently became a volunteer member of the Naval Reserve in Boston. As a seaman recruit, King will be given instruction in Naval procedure for several months.

New England's Electrical Supply Again Stepped Up

New England's electrical supply will be stepped up sharply this week as two brand new generating stations begin producing a total of 85,000 kilowatts of additional electrical power.

One of the new stations is in western Massachusetts and the other in southeastern New Hampshire but through interconnecting transmission lines, both add to the power pool upon which all New England may draw, according to Avery R. Schiller, chairman of the Electric Coordinating Council of New England and president of Public Service Company of New Hampshire.

This is all a part of a large postwar construction program begun in 1945 and 1946 when the relaxation of wartime restrictions made such work possible for the first time in five years.

Mr. Schiller's report listed a total of 352,250 kilowatts from major new sources between the summer of 1949 and the summer of 1950. This additional power represents part of development programs of the Boston Edison Company, among others.

Use Your Head, Not Your Horn.

Men's Gym Class To Begin Tuesday

In response to a number of requests received by the Park Department, adult gym classes will again be resumed beginning next Tuesday evening at the old gym in the High School. Gym will be opened at 7:00 o'clock.

This program is restricted to men of the community who would like the opportunity of working out in the gym without going through the strain of actual competition in league play. Ex-athletes who have gained weight from lack of exercise, business men who would like this opportunity to have a little workout, in fact anyone in the town who would like to exercise a bit is welcome.

Calisthenics, basket shooting, brief basketball scrimmages, volley ball and other games will be available. Badminton is available in the new gym on this same evening for those who may want to play this sport.

—Mrs. Milton Schadegg is attending the mid-winter conference of the Suffolk district, Department of Woman's Work of the Massachusetts Congregational Conference, today in Boston.

Yes indeed we are having a sale. We're calling this a Clearance Sale which will run until the end of January. You will find many real bargains—an opportunity to pick up choice gifts at very low prices.

TABLE LAMPS: Beautifully your home with one or more of the fine lamps we have to offer. Make comparisons and you will realize what beauties they really are.

COMPACTS: Demitasse by Valente, copied from a precious jewel case of the Mauve Decade. Ask to see these compact at our perfume counter.

KNITTING BAGS: Attractive and useful. Many sizes and styles from $3.00 up. You will find them just inside the door.

MINIATURES: Many fine miniatures carefully selected for those who enjoy this interesting hobby. New subjects now in stock.

GREETING CARDS: More space has been given to our greeting cards for all occasions. Just now we are showing a wonderful line of Valentine Cards. Make your selection early.

DROSTE'S PRODUCTS: Something new and delicious has been added to our edible department. For a real Dutch Treat try Droste's chocolate bars. Instant Cocoa or Chocolate pudding.

HEISEY GLASS: The Rose or the Zodiac Pattern in full variety. But also some very interesting late arrivals that merit your attention.

STATIONERY: A complete line of Crane's and Eaton fine papers that will fill every requirement. Get the habit of using our "Open Stock" papers when replenishing your supply.

JEWELRY: One of the smartest jewelry collections you'll find anywhere is at The Treasure Chest. Large assortment of earrings, pins, necklaces, bracelets and bangles. Priced $1.00 to $25.00. Plus tax.
